

Staff Training Galway, August 2023

In August, I attended a five-day language course at the Galway Cultural Institute in Galway, in the western part of Ireland. The language course consisted of a general communication training in small groups with students from all over the world as well as individual lessons to improve one’s own academic writing style. The language school was located in Salthill, a beautiful seaside area of Galway. In general, you can always feel the proximity of the Atlantic Ocean on the west coast of Ireland: a unique, wild and rugged landscape where the wind is always blowing.
